6. Update re: Fox Comm:

De Wane asked the committee to hold this item. De Wane explained that he had a message from Board Attorney, Fred Mohr, which stated that Mohr had an agreement that he would be proposing to FoxComm, but it was too late to add a closed session onto the agenda and he did not want it public while negotiations were ongoing.

Supervisor Clancy stated that he was disappointed that there was nothing more to report on this matter and was expecting something in writing.

Executive Hinz stated that there had been discussions on Monday with Attorney Mohr, Brown County Corporation Counsel, John Luetscher, Human Resources Manager, Debbie Klarkowski, and himself and he explained that there was an agreement that Mohr had sent to Winnebago County Corporation Counsel, John Bodnar, and it is in the process. Hinz stated he felt confident that it would be resolved.

Public Safety Communications Manager, Shelly Nackers, interjected that they are making progress with Mohr's help and things have been improving even though the committee is unable to see it right now.

IS Director, Bob Heimann, added that there had been concerns that the passwords had been locked out and he stated that that issue had been resolved.

Motion made by Supervisor Andrews and seconded by Supervisor Clancy to hold for two weeks. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

- 7. Update from County Executive re: Communication Center employment. (Referred from July meeting with possibility of a Closed Session.)

Motion made by Supervisor Williams and seconded by Supervisor Andrews to move item #7 after item #22. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

- 8. Director's report:

Nackers provided handouts (attached) and briefly went over them with the committee.

Supervisor Clancy questioned if CNN was coming to the Communication Center. Nackers responded that she was not aware of that but that the Communication Center was working on a public education/promotional piece with one of the training consultants they have used in the past and have had good luck with. The company wanted to promote themselves while partnering with the Communication Center to do public education. It is a benefit to Brown County Public Safety in training and for educating the public within Brown County. This will take place in September with a professional videographer and one of the cable news casts. This will show Brown County in a good light, it will give a step up on public education and save on cost at the same time.

Motion made by Supervisor Andrews and seconded by Supervisor Clancy to receive and place on file. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

Sheriff

- 9. Budget Status Financial Report for June 30, 2009:

Motion made by Supervisor Williams and seconded by Supervisor Andrews to receive and place on file. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

- 10. Key Factor Report for August and Jail Average Daily Population by Month and Type for the Calendar Year 2009:

Sheriff Kocken reported that there had been a clerical error and that some of the prisoners have been counted twice on these reports. He stated it had not caused any problems. He found that they are not as overcrowded as originally thought but they are still very full. It only affected the main lockup; the numbers were off by 60 inmates. It does change the cost per day per inmate which now is a higher rate. Kocken believed that the accountant had been using the higher numbers the past 2+ years but with finding out this info, he had since corrected it. What had happened was, some of the main lockups are at the Huber center so they were being counted at the main lockup and at Huber. Kocken will bring back the corrected information for the past five years for the committee to review.

Motion made by Supervisor Andrews and seconded by Supervisor Williams to receive and place on file. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

11. Request for Budget Transfer (#09-43): Increase in Expenditures with Offsetting Increase in Revenue: To modify the 2009 budget so that the estimated revenue from vehicle trade-ins is posted to a revenue acct, instead of being netted against the expense of new vehicles:

Motion made by Supervisor Clancy and seconded by Supervisor Andrews to approve. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

12. Request for Budget Transfer (#09-44): Increase in Expenditures with Offsetting Increase in Revenue: Grant funds to be used in 2009 to purchase equipment and offset training costs:

Motion made by Supervisor Andrews and seconded by Supervisor Williams to approve. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

13. Sheriff's report:

Kocken reported that they had applied for eight officers through the Recovery Act and were turned down for all eight. He believed that seven agencies in Wisconsin did receive officers, about 50 officers went to Milwaukee and at least one officer went to a handful of smaller agencies.

Supervisor Williams asked Kocken if a resolution could be drafted thanking Lieutenant Jude Trimberger for the services he has provided and noting his accomplishments while on the Drug Task Force. Kocken stated that he was moving on to be a Lieutenant in the investigative division.

Motion made by Supervisor Andrews and seconded by Supervisor Williams to receive and place on file. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

Teen Court

14. June Teen Court Stats:

Lois Mischler stated they were aware that budgets were coming up and she wanted to be proactive. It was her understanding due to the tight budget in 2010 Teen Court may not be included in the District Attorney's budget. She felt the increase in fees had impacted the reduction in referrals which can be seen in the quarterly reports. Family Services is committed to this program but with the tight budget and tough times they are going to leave it to the community to make the decisions. If it's decided that there isn't funding, they are going to respect that decision but felt it still had been a successful program in 2009.

Supervisor Andrews questioned if they had approached the schools for funding for the program, and felt the education factor was missing. Mischler explained that they had in the past and that school budgets are tight as well. They were waiting to see if they got a grant for $2,000 that they applied for which she felt will offset their losses for 2009 due to the reduction in fees.

Supervisor Williams suggested advocating with the judges as well.

Motion made by Supervisor Andrews and seconded by Supervisor Williams to receive and place on file. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

15. Teen Court 2008/2009 2nd Quarter Comparison:

Motion made by Supervisor Williams and seconded by Supervisor Clancy to receive and place on file. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

District Attorney

16. Monthly drug criminal complaint numbers (standing item):

DA Administrative Supervisor, Susan Tilot, reported that Beau Legois had been moved to from the county prosecutor position to the state funded TPR position effective this weekend. The prosecutor position had been posted and they have received a few applications and the applicants have had experience with drug court or have interned with a drug court. Legois will stay involved in the drug court program until a replacement is found and he will work with them and train them.

Tilot reported that a defense attorney came in to speak with drug prosecutor, Wendy Lemkuil, regarding defendant Tyler Lawton. The criminal complaint is filed so it's a matter of public record. Lawton had a criminal case in Manitowoc County and he had a criminal case in Brown County. When Wendy went to look him up, the criminal case in Manitowoc was filed 09CF267 which shows how many felony files filed in Manitowoc County. At that same point in time Lemkuil had charge 259 felony files herself in the same amount of time. Manitowoc County has six prosecutors. Brown County had one prosecutor filing as many files felony files as those six prosecutors all by herself.

Motion made by Supervisor Williams and seconded by Supervisor Andrews to receive and place on file. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

17. Resolution re: Requesting the State to Adequately Fund the Brown County District Attorney's Office:

Motion made by Supervisor Clancy and seconded by Supervisor Williams to approve. MOTION APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY.

Director's Report August 5, 2009

1. Wisconsin E911 Surcharge

The final Wisconsin budget completely diverted the proposed E911 surcharge to the state's General Fund. No reimbursement will be available for Wireless 911 lines in 2010, which in 2009 cost Brown County $42,000. (See the attached article in the Green Bay Press Gazette on 7/25/09).

2. 2010 Budget

We have prepared the department's 2010 budget package and submitted it to Administration as required on July 24. Our formal budget presentation to Administration is scheduled for August 11th.

3. Foxcomm

On July 20, Foxcomm changed administrative passwords on their servers and we were asked to sign a Third Party Agreement before these passwords would be provided. Since we are a full partner in Foxcomm until the end of 2009, this is unacceptable.

At the special Public Safety Committee meeting on July 29, the Committee directed Fred Mohr to draft a Brown County Termination Agreement and discuss the details with the attorney for Foxcomm.

4. Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) Project

Brown County's CAD project began this month with delivery of the HP NS1202 computer. Installation began as scheduled on July 28th. Remote software installation is scheduled to begin August 10th.

Since Foxcomm has blocked Motorola's ability to copy the configuration data over to our new system, we have begun manually re-creating this data. Input will begin August 24.

5. Overtime

With careful scheduling, we expect to reduce our overtime hours in 2009, below the historic lows of 2008. We will be 63% below 2004. (See the attached graph).

Wisconsin among states to raid 911 funds to plug budget holes

BY PETER SVENSSON
The Associated Press

NEW YORK — More than $200 million collected from cell phone users for upgrades to the 911 system has been diverted in the last two years to plug state budget holes, keep campaign promises and, in at least one case, buy police uniforms, an Associated Press analysis has found.

Dispatchers say the diversion of money comes at the expense of improvements that would give crime and accident victims more opportunities to reach responders. Someone who has been kidnapped, for instance, may not be able to talk but might be able to quietly send a text message or a photo.

Cell phone subscribers in nearly every state pay anywhere from 20 cents to $1.50 a month for what is described in their bills as 911 improvements. In some states, the AP analysis found, less than half that money is actually going to help emergency dispatchers keep pace with the features of smart phones.

As states hammered by the recession look around for new ways to balance their budgets, the 911 money is tempting:

■ In New York, only 19 cents of the $1.20 the state collects from each subscriber each month goes to emergency calling services. The rest pays for uniforms for the state police, a wireless network for emergency responders and the state's general expenditures.

■ In Wisconsin, a new 75-cent monthly fee was supposed to pay for ongoing 911 operations and improvements. When the state's deficit grew, the state decided to divert $100 million in the next two years to local governments to reduce pressure to raise property taxes.

■ In Arizona, lawmakers funneled $25 million from its emergency telecommu-

Wisconsin dips into 911 fund

Some states that raided the funds collected from cell phone bills for "E911," or enhancements to the 911 system, including Wisconsin.

In Wisconsin, a wireless tax introduced in 2005 expired last year, leaving a surplus of $20 million. The money was supposed to go back to cellular subscribers, with each person getting $5. Instead, it will be given to local governments to offset state aid cuts, as Wisconsin deals with a $6.6 billion budget shortfall.

A new plan imposed a 75 cent monthly fee on all phone users to raise $50 million a year. But when the state's deficit grew, that money was diverted to local governments to pay for police and fire protection instead of 911 centers. Officials say the move will reduce pressure to raise property taxes.

nications fund, halving its size, and cut its monthly 911 cell phone fee to 20 cents. As a result, the fund could be out of money within three years.

"The issue of (fund) raiding has been a trickle for a few years, and now we're seeing the faucet on full blast," said Dane Snowden, vice president of external and state affairs at wireless industry group CTIA.

A highly publicized round of call center upgrades is nearly complete, allowing 911 dispatchers to automatically pinpoint cell phone callers. But emergency officials say that's no reason to raid funds set aside for future upgrades. After all, voice calls are just one of many things phones can do.

Dispatchers would like the capability to receive photos, videos and text messages from cell phone users in danger. Photos shot by witnesses with camera phones have already proved useful in catching bank robbers and flashers, for instance. Getting those photos to 911 centers — which could get them to police faster — could help solve crimes.

In several cases in recent years, kidnapping victims have summoned help by surreptitiously sending text messages. But because they can't send directly to 911, they've had to use intermediaries.

A 14-year-old girl in Kershaw County, S.C., was held in an underground bunker for more than a week before she managed to send a text message to her mother from the captor's phone.

Upgrading call centers to handle text and video messaging would require new computer systems, communications lines and staff training, costing tens of millions of dollars per state, according to the National Emergency Number Association.

A complete accounting of how 911 money is spent in all states is not available, partly because most of the money dispatch centers get is funneled to them by counties.
